

The Burrows Cei Bach

We want everyone to enjoy the house, have fun and make memories so we hope the below will help to keep the house at its best so many other can enjoy it after your stay. Most of the below are linked to requirements for insurance purposes rather than us just being fussy. Please always contact us if you have questions or concerns.

House Rules

Whilst using the Property, please adhere to the following House Rules:

- You are responsible for the supervision of all members of your party including those under the age of 18 at all times. Use of the outdoor climbing frame is at your own risk
- Please respect the local neighbours and keep the noise levels to a minimum, especially between the hours of 11pm and 8am.
- Smoking (including e-cigarettes and vapes) is not permitted inside the Property.
- No visitors are allowed to stay at the Property. If you wish to invite additional visitors during your stay, please contact us in advance.
- Fire risks including candles, firepits, fireworks, lanterns are not permitted at the property.
- You are not permitted to use domestic power sockets to charge an electric or hybrid vehicle, including electric bikes and scooters. We receive notifications from our electricity company when there is a surge in power.
- The house has a septic tank system therefore only toilet roll is to be flushed. No baby wipes etc. Sanitary/nappy bags have been provided for convenience.
- New regulations in Wales are very strict with regards to recycling and rubbish collections. Please support us by following our recycling instructions. We have provided a bin for everything plus the bags to go in them.
- We ask that you leave the house as you find it. We do not ask you to strip any of the beds but we do ask for it to be left clean and tidy so we can make the house spotless again for our next guests. Please fill the dishwasher and empty the bins.
